Gods in My Home: Chinese New Year with Ancestor Portraits and Deity Prints

Opens January 26 | Included with museum admission

Gods in My Home brings together Chinese ancestral paintings and traditional popular prints, and examines the unexplored connection between these two seemingly separate genres in the context of Chinese Lunar New Year. These images reflect a Chinese view of reverence and the belief that these portraits and prints were capable of blessing and protecting the prosperity of family lines.

Experience these compelling and never-before-seen images through an artistic lens in this ROM original exhibition.
