Overview

The aim of the Sailing School is to introduce new adult sailors to the fundamentals of sailing; to help them learn to sail safely and especially to have fun. Sailing club members assist with in-dinghy supervision as required, and with dinghy setup, maintenance, and repairs. Opportunities to crew in the club's informal Friday night races and BBQs are available to students (and instructors if interested!) as well as trial membership in the club for a nominal fee for successful graduates of the program.

The club uses Sail Canada's CANSail dinghy program to bring students to the CANSail 2 competency.

Nature and Scope

SBSC is seeking 2 CANSail 1 & 2 certified Sailing Instructors for the 2019 season.
