Qualifications:

- Previous experience as a sailing instructor is preferred
- Trained/certified as a CANSail 1&2, CANSail 3&4 or CANSail 5&6 instructor, or equivalent
- Sail Canada instructor registration for 2020
- Current Emergency First Aid, or equivalent
- Current Boat Rescue, or equivalent
- Current Pleasure Craft Operators Card
- Current VHF Licence is preferred

We offer:

- Competitive wages and benefits, for 9-10 weeks' employment, from mid-June to late-August
- Free room and board, for applicants from away
- A program full of spirit, enthusiasm and tradition, with emphasis on both racing skills and fun
- A highly supportive board of directors and local community
- A fantastic summer to remember in the Kawartha Lakes area of Ontario cottage country

About us:

- SLSC was founded in 1956, and has been offering summer sailing instruction ever since.
- We offer morning sailing instruction for kids from age 8 to 18, ranging from Wet Feet to Race Team, with extended mornings for senior sailors and afternoon racing for Feva & Opti racers.
- We sail C420s, RS Fevas, Bytes, Picos and Optis.
- We offer a variety of afternoon outreach sailing programs for local community organizations.
- We run Sunday afternoon races for junior sailors and the Sturgeon Lake community, weekly fun days and movie nights, excursions, Friday night dances and more.
- We host an annual Civic Holiday regatta, in several classes.
- We regularly host the Mid-Ontario Championship Regatta for Laser, Radial, C420 & Feva.
