

Inclusion Policy

Scope

This policy applies to all of Ontario Sailing's activities. The policy lays out expectations for individuals and organizations affiliated with Ontario Sailing.

Definitions

Discrimination: Unfair or prejudicial treatment of individuals or groups on the basis of grounds listed within the policy. Discrimination, whether intentional or unintentional, has the effect of preventing or limiting access to opportunities, benefits, or advantages that are available to other members of society. It is not a discriminatory practice for a person to adopt or carry out a special program, plan or arrangement designed to prevent, eliminate or reduce disadvantages that are likely to be suffered by any group of individuals when those disadvantages would be based on or related to the prohibited grounds of discrimination.

Diversity: The presence of a wide range of human qualities and attributes within a group, organization, or society. The dimensions of diversity include, but are not limited to, ancestry, culture, ethnicity, gender, gender identity, language, physical and intellectual ability, race, religion, sex, sexual orientation, and socio-economic status.

Equity: A condition or state of fair, inclusive, and respectful treatment of all people. Equity does not mean treating people the same without regard for individual differences.

Family Status: Spouse or spousal equivalent, children, parents or siblings.

Gender Expression: How a person publicly presents their gender. This can include behaviour and outward appearance such as dress, hair, make-up, body language and voice. A person's chosen name and pronoun are also common ways of expressing gender. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Gender identity: Each person's internal and individual experience of gender. It is their sense of being a woman, a man, both, neither, or anywhere along the gender spectrum. A person's gender identity may be the same as or different from their birth-assigned sex. Gender identity is fundamentally different from a person's sexual orientation. (Ontario Human Rights Commission)

Harassment: Any unwanted physical or verbal behaviour that offends or humiliates you. It is considered by the Ontario Human Rights Code (1962) as a form of discrimination. This can occur when someone makes remarks to you that are known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome including but not limited to your race, religion, age or disability. Harassment also encompasses any comments or conduct that is

Operational Procedures

To promote and support inclusivity in daily operations Ontario Sailing will strive to:

- Ensure the mix of staff and volunteer leaders on the Board and committees reflect the diversity of the larger Ontario Sailing community.
- Undertake strong and clear initiatives to encourage participation at all levels of the sport for populations traditionally underrepresented.
- Play a positive role in raising the awareness and understanding of equity amongst our membership through ongoing education opportunities.
- Work towards ensuring all organization documents include gender neutral language.

Inclusion Policy

- Ensure that inclusivity is implemented when developing, updating or delivering Ontario Sailing programs, policies and materials. Ensure equal effort for all individuals.
- Encourage all member clubs and affiliated agencies to ensure equal opportunities for all.

Procedure for Inclusion as Relates to Gender Identity

The overall philosophy for developmental and recreational sport is one of full inclusion. Athletes in developmental and recreational levels of sailing will be supported in participating in the gender category in which they identify, without any need for disclosure of information or other requirements at all Ontario Sailing events.

The same inclusion principle applies to high performance athletes up until the point where they must comply with international federation rules. In high performance sport, while inclusion is desired, it may be tempered by the application of international rules which will tend to be more restrictive than Canadian rules.
