Kingston ON K7M 8X7

CANSail 5 & 6 Instructor for the 2022 Season

The Collins Bay Yacht Club Sailing School has a long history of commitment to sailing training. The Sailing School is known for offering a welcoming, learning environment and solid program of instruction for both youth and adult participants. We are located on Collins Bay, in the west end of Kingston, in a park-like setting adjacent to a major conservation area. This position requires a commitment to the Collins Bay Yacht Club's mission and values.

We offer:

- Competitive wages, commensurate with experience and qualifications;
- A fun and friendly working environment;
- Professional support provided by the Head Instructor and a dedicated Sailing School Committee
- Uniforms;
- Excellent teaching facilities and equipment;
- Reliable coach boats;
- Racing and sailing opportunities with the CBYC.

Responsibilities:

- Full-time employment from late June to late August;
- Instruct and evaluate CANSail 1 – 6 level participants;
- Communicate sailing skill progress to participants and their parents;
- Coordinating competitions with other clubs and Sail Canada sponsored regattas;
- Assist the Head Instructor in planning and coordinating the Sailing School activities;
- Mentor and assist in developing the skills of the more junior instructors;
- Assist with the maintenance of sailing dinghies;
- Proper operation and care of coach boats, sailboats and Sailing School facilities.

Qualifications:

- CANSail 5-6 Instructor, trained or certified;
- Sail Canada instructor registration in good standing for 2022;
- Current Standard First Aid with CPR-C;
- Boat Safety Course and Pleasure Craft Operator's Card (PCOC);
- VHF Restricted Operators Certificate (ROC-M).

Accessibility:

- We are an equal opportunity employer.
- We welcome and encourage applications from people with disabilities. We will work with you to accommodate your needs in line with the goals of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act and the Ontario Human Rights Code. Should you require accommodation through the application or interview processes, or any stage of the recruitment process, please contact Richard Dickson at schooldirector@collinsbayyachtclub.ca.

All offers of employment will be subject to the provision of a successful and current Police Background Check (Vulnerable Sector Screening) as well as proof of being fully vaccinated against COVID-19 before the time of hire.

Please submit your resume and a cover letter, no later than March 14, 2022, to:

Richard Dickson
CBYC Sailing School Director
