About us:

Located on the waterfront in Gananoque, Ontario, The Thousand Islands Boat Museum (TIBM) is a hands-on Museum where history becomes something that can be touched, built, and experienced.

The Museum is committed to getting kids onto the river. For centuries, sailing has been part of River life.

The Thousand Islands Boat Museum is excited to bring sailing back to Gananoque this summer. TIBM will offer 3-4 one-week sailing courses to give children a fun hands-on introduction to the sport of sailing.

Duties of CANSail 1/2 Instructor: The main duty is to provide on-water sailing instruction to day camp participants in accordance with CANSail 1/2 standards. When there is not a day camp running, instructors will be responsible to provide private on-water sailing instruction to youth and adults by appointment.
