Preamble

An inclusive, broad-based strategic planning process is an opportunity for the board, staff and stakeholders to listen with curiosity to those Ontario Sailing seeks to serve. Over the course of nine months and with the assistance of a third-party consultant, Ontario Sailing received 634 pieces of direct input and feedback through either a survey response, interview, focus group or feedback loop opportunity.

In the final steps of our process, the draft plan was shared with several groups, including a group of Commodores who paid particular attention to the priorities related to the development and engagement of member organizations. There was general support for the plan and a commitment from the group to assist in gathering data in the months and years ahead to enable the organization to make well researched, evidence-based decisions.

While it was not our intention in this current planning process to review our mission, vision, and values, the feedback we have received suggests that there is some confusion about who we are, what we do and who we serve. The Board will consider, as part of our work in the months ahead, how to articulate our mission, vision, values, and overarching goals with greater clarity.

As a Board, we recognize that this plan involves elements of continued information gathering, learning and then action on that learning. We embrace our future as one that is adaptable and flexible and driven by data and evidence as well as relationships and community. We will continue to ask ourselves and the staff team, in relation to each strategic priority: What does success look like today?

We recognize the importance of all our partners in supporting Ontario Sailing's ability to deliver our mission. Our partnerships are mutually beneficial, and we value the support they each provide. We look forward to a renewed commitment with each of our key partners. We note the importance of our ongoing relationship with Sail Canada and are committed to an alignment of programs and services, as well as shared initiatives that serve the missions of both organizations.

Mission

Ontario Sailing is a not-for-profit organization dedicated to developing lifelong sailors through leadership and programming.

Vision

Ontario Sailing will champion the sport of sailing, enabling it to flourish and grow, becoming the leading, lifelong recreational and competitive sport in Ontario.

Themes

Throughout the planning process several themes wove their way into the fabric of the various conversations and feedback opportunities. These themes provide the backdrop to the plan and our daily work at Ontario Sailing. They also form the basis for the strategic priorities that are highlighted in this plan. The themes of sustainability, membership, community, inclusion, and communications set the context for this plan.

Strategic priorities do not replace the core foundational work of Ontario Sailing. Strategic priorities provide the lenses through which day-to-day activities are aligned within the resources the organization has at their disposal. As stated at the outset, our goal is forward propulsion that balances our resources with day-to-day operational excellence and strategic initiatives in alignment with our stakeholders and partners.

Sustainability

As an organization we view all aspects of our work through a lens of sustainability. This means that we consider the need to be sustainable in terms of the environment, finances, human resources, governance, and membership. Sustainability is a consideration intertwined throughout every discussion to ensure we act in a manner that is consistent with the long-term viability of our sport.

Community

Throughout the planning process, we were buoyed by the positive, supportive, and thoughtful engagement of those who took the time to participate. We are a community of people who care deeply about this sport and want to ensure its long-term success. We heard frequently that there is concern that numbers in our sailing community are diminishing, the population aging, and interest in sailing and powerboating waning. This concern was balanced by others who shared that in their community, participation has increased. We need to gather data and investigate the concerns raised so we can have a shared understanding of the reality throughout the province. Once we know where the sport stands, we can address issues through the collective effort we hope this plan represents.

Membership

We want Ontario Sailing member organizations, who lead sailing in their communities, to know they are supported through: training staff and volunteers to deliver programs; support for the governance and operations of each organization and through ongoing work to ensure the long-term health of the sport. We seek to establish greater clarity in all our communications and build greater understanding of who the members are and how we work together to achieve our shared goals.

Equity, Inclusion & Access

The discussion around equity, inclusion and access was often couched in terms related to racial diversity, access for individuals of all genders, socio-economic backgrounds, abilities. However, it was not limited to this. We also heard about the importance of access to training, the cost of training and the limited ability for those trained to earn enough to cover the investment in their training.

Communications

The importance of clear, concise, and consistent communication that is shared with all stakeholders arose often. Thankfully, some of the suggestions raised during collection of feedback included work the organization is already advancing. We recognize a need to ensure we identify who our various audiences are for each mode of communication, and tailor messages to meet audience needs.
